

Graduate Orientation 2009

Tuesday September 8th, 2009

The School of Graduate Studies invites you to Graduate Orientation 2009. Join us at Hart House for a day of information and discussion about your graduate school experience. Welcome to the UofT graduate community!

8:45 a.m.	INFORMATION FAIR	East Common Room
Learn about the services and resources U of T offers graduate students, and have your questions answered by knowledgeable representatives from the University. Enjoy coffee, tea and muffins!
10:00 a.m.	WELCOME	Great Hall
Representatives from the SGS and the UofT welcome you to the University and provide an overview of what you can expect from your graduate experience. Professor Brian Corman, Dean, Graduate Studies and Vice-Provost, Graduate Education Professor Jill Matus, Vice-Provost Students, President's Welcome Louise Cowin, Warden, Hart House Greg West, Finance & Services Commissioner, Graduate Students' Union
10:30 a.m.	PANEL DISCUSSION: Making the Most of Your Graduate Experience	Great Hall, Hart House
Current grad students and representatives from various areas of graduate student life participate in a moderated discussion on 'Making the Most of Your Graduate Experience'. Dr. Jane Freeman Director, English Language & Writing Support Rory McKeown PhD Candidate Professor Elizabeth Smyth, Vice-Dean Programs Krista Steeves, Assistant Director, School of Graduate Studies Jeff Richardson, Programming Coordinator, School of Graduate Studies Moderator: Professor Berry Smith, Vice-Dean Students, School of Graduate Studies
12:00 p.m.	CAMPUS TOURS	Lower Gallery
Hart House is located at 7 Hart House Circle. The closest Subway Stop is Museum Station. The accessible entrance is located on the west side of the building, south of Hoskin Ave.

Graduate Orientation Corn Roast!

September 9th - 5:00pm – 8:00pm

Join incoming graduate students for a harvest social and corn roast in the Hart House Quad.

Free Food – Live music - Prizes - Cash Bar