3. Business Arising from the Minutes

There was no Business Arising from the Minutes.

4. Motions

a. Graduate Academic Appeals Board (GAAB) Membership 2017-18

The Graduate Education Council derives its authority from the Governing Council and, as such, is the body that approves memberships on a number of School of Graduate Studies activities.

A faculty member suggested that membership be staggered to retain institutional memory on the committee. It appears that faculty in graduate units under-appreciate the importance of decisions made by standing committees that may have long-standing implications for their department. Members are, therefore, encouraged to nominate delegates to these committees so that their voices may be heard.
MOTION (duly moved by Liz Smyth and seconded by Luc De Nil)
THAT the membership of the Graduate Academic Appeals Board (GAAB) for 2017-18 be approved.

The motion was CARRIED.

b. Name Change for The Office of English Language and Writing Support (ELWS):

GEC has the delegated authority to approve name changes within SGS and as such, a motion was introduced to change the name of The Office of English Language and Writing Support to The Graduate Center for Academic Communication.

Professor Smyth introduced Jane Freeman, Director of ELWS. Dr. Freeman referred to the motion language in the agenda package and explained the reason behind the name change. The current name is cumbersome and often forgotten or remembered inaccurately; the current name misrepresents what the unit does and the new name is in keeping with names of similar units in other research universities. In preparing the proposal for the name change, stakeholders were surveyed and unanimously supported the name change. The executive summary accompanying the motion shows the diversity of activities offered by the Center and user uptake.

MOTION (duly moved by Liz Smyth and seconded by Carmela Versace) that the name of The Office of English Language and Writing Support be changed to The Graduate Center for Academic Communication (GCAC).

The motion was CARRIED.

c. SGS Hearing Officer:

Under the University of Toronto’s Code of Student Conduct, the Graduate Education Council is required to appoint a Hearing Officer for the Code of Student Conduct cases. Nominations are made by the Dean of the School of Graduate Studies and the appointment is for a three-year term.

MOTION (duly moved by Liz Smyth and seconded by Charles Dalrymple-Fraser)
THAT Graduate Education Council approve the appointment of Professor Jim Phillips as the SGS Hearing Officer for the Code of Student Conduct, for a third three-year term commencing July 1, 2017 and ending June 30, 2020.

Professor Phillips is not a member of Graduate Education Council.

The motion was CARRIED.

5. Regulation Review Phase 1, Professor Luc De Nil, Vice-Dean Students:

The School of Graduate Studies Calendar is reviewed annually to ensure accuracy of content and clarity in language. The Calendar defines regulations for students enrolled in Graduate Studies and forms the basis on which their academic program is regulated. Editorial changes were distributed with the agenda for information, and do not require formal approval. The second phase of the review will take place in the coming year with broad consultation of graduate units. Final changes will be presented to Graduate Education Council for approval prior to submission to the appropriate bodies of Governing Council for approval.
Documents distributed with the agenda show the “track changes” comments in the General, Degree and Fee Regulation text and Financial Support section of the Calendar. Professor De Nil provided an overview of the editorial changes highlighted in the attached PowerPoint Presentation and requested feedback prior to the May 31, 2017 submission deadline.

The Dean thanked Victoria Hurlihey for her assistance with the project.

6. Dean’s Remarks

a. Parental Leave Grants

Currently leave is available for all mothers and parents (birthing, same-sex, adoptive) but they do not receive financial support. Some units provide financial support to the parents and some federal grants/scholarship/fellowships have accommodation. In consulted with Graduate Deans and focus groups, SGS has decided to offer grants to fund parental leaves for PhD students in the funded cohort. Students may receive a $4,000 grant associated with a parental leave and an additional $4,000 grant is available to birthing mothers. This will be announced following formal approval.

A member asked is there are immigration issues for international students associated with taking parental leaves. Since SGS is not permitted to provide advice on immigration issues, L. Stathopoulos suggested that students contact the Center for International Experience for advice on how such a leave would affect a Study Visa.

b. Gym Membership Fees

SGS will reimburse summer gym membership fees up to $90 for full time doctoral-stream students; this is not extended to professional masters students at this time.

c. UHIP

International students who become Permanent Residents lose their UHIP before they are covered by OHIP. SGS will reimburse students for this cost. Please have students contact Rory McKeown, Admissions and International Student Advisor at sgs.international@utoronto.ca if they require assistance.

d. Response to Graduate Professional Development Report

Previously Professor Reinhart Reithmeier presented the Graduate Professional Development Report. SGS’ response to this was distributed with the agenda materials. Related to that is the 10,000 PhD Survey (name). Graduate Units have received emails requesting assistance with data verification for students that were unable to be located. Once all units have replied, SGS will distribute final data to units and begin publishing aggregate results. It is hoped this data will drive change in Graduate Programs to better align with student outcomes. It is crucial to focus on what is best for our students, what is required and asked for by our students to give them the optimal education. SGS has a role to get the valued-added message of these programs to students and faculty.
7. For Information

a. GAAB Annual Report 2015-16
The GAAB Annual Report listing appeals and outcomes for the preceding year was distributed with the agenda.

b. Admissions and Program Committee Report 2015-16
The report of Admissions and Program Committee activities for the 2015-16 academic year was distributed with the agenda.

The summary of Non-Standard Admissions and Program Cases from September 1, 2015 to August 31, 2016 was distributed with the agenda.

8. Closing Remarks

The Dean welcomed any questions or feedback. There being no further discussion or questions, the Dean thanked Council members for their participation and moved to adjourn the meeting.

Professor L. De Nil noted that this is Locke’s last meeting as Dean of the School of Graduate Studies. A search is underway for a new Dean. Professor De Nil applauded the Dean’s efforts in moving SGS forward with the focus of student experience and support, and thanked Dean Rowe for all he has done on behalf of SGS and GEC.

The meeting adjourned at 4:07 p.m.

Graduate Education Council

Responsibilities for graduate governance:

- Previously this Council was responsible for final approvals for major and minor modifications to programs, and for recommendations on new program proposals, as well as new and existing policies and regulations.
- Each Faculty now has responsibility for final approvals for all minor modifications (courses, admission and program regulations, etc.), and plays a central role in major modifications, new program proposals and reviews of its own units and programs.
- The Office of the Vice-Provost, Academic Programs is also now responsible for the graduate unit calendar entries.

Role of this Council:

- The Graduate Education Council’s role has a focus on University-wide policy, regulations and guidelines affecting graduate studies broadly speaking.
- New policies and changes to existing policies are presented to the GEC for approval or for consultation, depending on the nature of the policy.
- In the case of most SGS regulations, that is, those in the Graduate Calendar, Council will have final approval authority.
- Proposals for new guidelines and documents reflecting best practices or changes to existing ones are brought to GEC for information and often for discussion.
- The University has moved to a model of more focused policy documents which require governance approval, and guidelines which are provided to governance bodies for information, but do not require formal approval.
- This differentiation allows for changes to be made in the enactment of policy in a more nimble and timely manner through guidelines.

Your role as GEC member:

- You may exercise your own judgment on matters - you are not representing your department or division directly.
- Please raise questions on items where information is not clear - you can do this at the meeting, but feel free to contact the Dianne (sgs.dean@utoronto.ca) before the meeting as advance warning is always helpful.
- There are policies and guidelines of various sorts - if you are wondering about the regulatory environment affecting a given proposal, don’t hesitate to ask.
- If you want to discuss possible agenda items for future, please contact one of the SGS Vice-Deans or myself, contact information is below.
- Agenda items normally arise from our work as academic administrators, with support from the senior administrative staff.
• There are venues for raising topics of interest, for example, both Vice-Deans have advisory committees which usually meet at least once a term.

Documentation for GEC members:

• The GEC agenda and packages are available on the SGS website on the GEC webpage, https://www.sgs.utoronto.ca/facultyandstaff/Pages/GEC-Meeting-Agendas-and-Minutes.aspx.
• Document packages, and web-links to the package, are sent out via email on the Wednesday prior to the GEC meeting.
• Items that come before Council for approval will have a motion sheet as cover.
• In addition to providing the motion wording, the motion sheet gives you information about previous governance actions and consultations, and may include other information.
• The motion sheet also shows the route to final approvals so you know whether GEC approval is final or not.
• The GEC web pages include the GEC membership list, Rules of Council, past agendas and minutes, https://www.sgs.utoronto.ca/facultyandstaff/Pages/Graduate-Education-Council.aspx.
• Information about graduate governance procedures overall and contact information is also available in summary form on the website.
• Don’t hesitate to contact me or the staff in my office at any time if you have questions or comments, at any time.

This report provides statistics on graduate student cases administered within the School of Graduate Studies (SGS) under the University of Toronto, Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (“the Code”). The SGS Office of the Dean is responsible for these cases.

Table 1 below shows the number of Code offence cases, by offence type, where a sanction was imposed at the level of SGS. The table provides data by academic year for cases that were concluded during that year.

Table 2 below shows the length of time, i.e., ‘timeliness’, from the date when an allegation of offence was received by SGS to the date that either a sanction was imposed at the level of SGS or the case was referred to the Office of the Provost. The table provides data by academic year for cases that were concluded at the SGS level during that year. There are only four years of data for timeliness. 2010-11 was the first year this information was reported.

This report lists appeals to the Graduate Academic Appeals Board (GAAB) that were initiated in the preceding year. The GAAB is delegated from the Graduate Education Council (GEC) and has the mandate to handle and decide upon all academic appeals by students in connection with the School of Graduate Studies (SGS). The GAAB is the highest level of appeal within the graduate school.

Graduate students may appeal substantive or procedural academic matters, including grades, evaluation of comprehensive examinations and other program requirements; decisions about the student's continuation in their program; or concerning any other decision with respect to the application of academic regulations and requirements to a student. Decisions related to admission to an academic program are not subject to appeal.

Please refer to the GAAB By-Laws and the appeals policy in the General Regulations in the SGS Calendar for further information.

RE: Update: Use of Skype for Doctoral Final Oral Exams (FOE)

I am pleased to inform you that SGS now supports the use of Skype for all Doctoral Final Oral Examinations. Prior approval from the Vice-Deans Office is no longer required.

As stated in the FOE Guidelines, SGS allows up to a maximum of two members to participate remotely (teleconference or Skype). It is best practice to ensure that compatible facilities exist at the remote participant’s location. SGS recommends that lines be tested at least three business days in advance of the exam date; and that a telephone number, preferably a landline, will be available as backup.

Please remember that Skype may not be a secured communication channel and therefore information presented and discussed may be intercepted by a third-party and cannot be guaranteed to be held in confidence.

The University has begun planning the rollout of Office 365. SGS will provide more information regarding Skype for Business (a product within O365) and its use with Final Oral Exams as information becomes available.

All coordination, inquiries, and scheduling for exams must go through the SGS Doctoral Office. The Doctoral office will collect all information required for the exam (including contact information, skype names, etc.) for the externals and schedule to test calls with externals.
