WELCOME TO U OF T

Where else can you choose from over 300 graduate research and professional programs, and collaborative specializations (www.sgs.utoronto.ca/programs), collaborate with top scholars and faculty across disciplines, join a network of distinguished alumni, and live in the most multicultural city in the world? Only at U of T.

Our three campuses house unparalleled research and education facilities as well as outstanding libraries. The historic St. George campus in downtown Toronto is an intellectual oasis in the core of Canada's largest city, while graduate programs are growing rapidly at U of T Mississauga's state-of-the-art campus and U of T Scarborough's world-renowned research hub.

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI

From artists to astronauts, crusaders to storytellers, financiers to innovative entrepreneurs, and champions of causes to Olympic champions — as a U of T graduate, you become part of a wide network of esteemed alumni.

HOW TO APPLY

1. Search our wide selection of innovative, cross-disciplinary programs
   Explore our programs at www.sgs.utoronto.ca/programs. Chances are, we’ve got what you’re looking for.

2. Learn about admission requirements
   Confirm your program’s admission requirements by consulting the SGS Calendar (https://sgs.calendar.utoronto.ca/). Visit your graduate unit’s website to confirm application procedures and deadlines. Some requirements you should consider: prerequisite degrees and courses, minimum GPA, application deadlines, and confirmation of supervision.

3. Prepare your application
   Some of the items you’ll need to include are: statement of intent; transcripts (academic records); curriculum vitae; any program-specific requirements; official GRE/GMAT, TOEFL/IELTS, or equivalent test scores if required.

4. Apply
   Set aside 30 to 60 minutes and start the process using our online application at apply.sgs.utoronto.ca.
