Who we are
Our team assists in navigating disability-related barriers to your academic success at U of T for your ongoing or temporary disability. We provide services and supports for learning, problem solving and inclusion.

Why connect with us
• In-class & test & exam accommodations
• Adaptive software & equipment; learning strategies
• Peer support; learning & social opportunities

ACCOMMODATIONS
We provide individualized, effective and reasonable academic accommodations to students experiencing disability-related barriers in their program of study registered with our service.

LEARNING
Connect with our in-house learning strategists to develop skills to support your learning. We also have workshops, dialogues and events to help you build academic skills, resilience, self-advocacy and leadership.

PEER PROGRAMS
At Accessibility Services, we are committed to fostering a sense of belonging and community for our students. Connect with your peers and share the experience of navigating disability on campus.

Peer advisor drop-in hours
Peer advisors are upper-year or graduate students registered with Accessibility Services who can provide one-to-one support in short, drop-in appointments. Appointments are available daily. For a full schedule, please visit uoft.me/as-peers.

Booking appointments/seeing your advisor
Your accessibility advisor can help you navigate your accommodations and offer support if you’re experiencing difficulties or a flare-up of your symptoms. Contact our front desk to book an appointment with your accessibility advisor. To visit your accessibility advisor during drop-in hours, visit uoft.me/as-advisors for the times and locations.
